The standard for admissions is:

A four year Bachelor degree + a two/three year Master degree; which will lead to a full 4 year PhD research in the Netherlands.

Scenario 1a: A combined Bachelor/Master degree being a 6 years program

Scenario 1b: A joined study of Bachelor and Doctoral Degree including a Bachelor degree plus a combined Master/PhD program of which at least 2 years have been completed, you need to provide us with an official statement of your university that you have finished the master part of the combined program;

Scenario 1c: Student after having obtained a bachelor degree and is expected to finish the Master program within one year, may start a PhD application and ask for a preliminary admittance; a full 4 years in the Netherlands.

to be considered for the PhD the Netherlands. This can also be highlighted in a strong motivational letter explaining the reasoning.

for the PhD candidates is an academic proficiency, to be proven by either IELTS or TOEFL score.

IELTS: An academic average score of 7.0 is compulsory, minimal 6.0 for all subscores: Listening, Speaking, Reading and Writing TOEFL: Score of 100 is compulsory, minimal 20 for the subscores Listening, Speaking, Reading and Writing.
